Gina: What a fantastic song. I love listening to you play the guitar. It must feel great to be able to play like that. May: 30_____ Gina: I did have some guitar lessons when I was in junior high school. It was really painful! My fingers were always so sore after practice. May: 31_____ Gina: And it was so difficult to play even simple things. I felt the guitar probably wasn't for me. May: 32_____ Gina: I really love the drums as well. But they're so noisy, aren't they? I can't imagine being able to play at home. May: 33_____ Gina: There's a thought. Aren't they expensive? May: 34_____ Gina: You've got me really interested now. I might take a look in some shops this weekend. May: 35_____ Gina: That would be great. I suppose I had better check if my parents are OK with it first, though!	A I can come with you, if you like. B It really hurts when you first start playing. But your fingers get used to it over time. C I'm sure you could do it if you tried. You're a great singer. You've got a good sense of music. Have you never tried to learn an instrument? D New, yes. But you can get a used kit pretty cheaply in a second-hand store. And I can play the drums a bit, too. I'd be happy to teach you the basics. E String instruments are difficult in the beginning. It's not like a piano where you can just hit a key to get a note. They take some getting used to. What about other instruments? Is there nothing else you've thought you'd like to play? F The guitar, too. But I much prefer playing the piano. G You can get electric kits that you can play with headphones on.

G Answer the following question. Write at least 50 words.

36 Would you like to do volunteer work? Why, or why not?
